VARIOUS MATTERS

The day's length has decreased an even half-hour.

Block Islanders consider swordfishing poor this season.

In the church calendar, today is the feast of St. Mary Magdalene.

While it is yet summer, dealers are receiving consignments of Christmas dolls from Germany.

So much pleasant weather has favored boating, and up and down the river craft of all kinds may be seen.

Members of the senior class at the state hospital are expecting to be graduated at an early date.

About the state the New Haven road is endeavoring to put a stop to the theft of railroad ties.

The 12th annual reunion of the Holmes and May families is to be held at Crystal Lake, Tolland county, Thursday, August 12.

Fishermen returning from the shore bring home encouraging reports of the prospects for snapper blues this season.

There was a slight rise in temperature Wednesday over that of Tuesday, but the day was delightfully comfortable.

An excursion to Watch Hill and Block Island will come down the C. V. road on Saturday from Stafford Springs.

The third annual meeting of the Bates association is to be held August 5 at the Old North church, Weymouth Heights, Mass.

The summer outing of the Connecticut Editorial association and the Associated Dailies has been fixed for Monday, July 26, at the Indian Point house, Stony Creek.

At Northfield, both the young women's and the home missionary conferences closed their sessions Friday night. Many who have been attending the meetings are returning home.

The parlor car has been discontinued on this division of the Central Vermont railroad, as the demand for this class of accommodation was not sufficient to warrant a continuance of the service.

On some of the afternoon trains on the Groton division the brakeman now announces the time of connections and the location of trains at the New London station, calling this helpful information just before New London is reached, an innovation appreciated by all passengers.

By the new state law the powers of the school districts are now vested in the towns and the books of the various districts are to be handed over to the town clerks, while the property heretofore held by the districts is vested in the various towns which are to elect school committees at the coming October election.

The present week has brought another advance of a cent a pound in the wholesale price of beef, but up to the present time, the retailers say, there has been no advance in the price to the consumers. Top corn-fed beef is costing the marketmen today a dollar a hundred pounds more than it cost last week.

NORWICH CREDITOR FOR $10,255.

F. N. Gilliland Unsecured to That Amount With New York Stock Brokers.

Ennis & Stoppani, stock brokers, of No. 33 Broad street, New York, filed their schedules in bankruptcy Tuesday.

The clerk's office of the United States district court, New York, has received a list of liabilities of $12,000, of which $545,443 are secured by collateral valued at $523,229, unsecured $1,656,558, and wages $589. The above total of liabilities does not include the claim of Mrs. Stoppani of $523,000.

There are about 1,800 creditors named in the schedules. Among the unsecured creditors is F. N. Gilliland of this city for $10,255.

Irving L. Brown, attorney for the bankrupts, formally offered the composition which has been accepted by a majority of creditors in number and amount. The terms are 25 cents cash on confirmation of the composition and 85 cents on notes, without interest, payable 20 cents in six months, 20 cents in twelve months, 20 cents in eighteen months and 25 cents in twenty-four months, making 100 cents in all.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

County Director Fitzgerald Performs Duties for St. Mary's Society.

A large number of members gathered in the assembly room of St. Mary's T. A. and R. Society Monday evening when President James Carey called the meeting to order. The following officers were then installed in their various offices by County Director M. P. Fitzgerald of New London:

Chaplain, as appointed by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Gildea; president, John W. Shea; vice president, John J. Smith; recording secretary, Andrew F. Caplan; financial secretary, John P. Andrews; treasurer, Daniel T. Foley; chairman board of directors, Patrick J. White; librarian, Patrick J. Donahue; sergeant at arms, William J. Corcoran; directors, John Donahue, William P. Murphy, John Wozniak, James J. Smith, John Shea, James P. Brown, Walter G. Casey and Jeremiah Biorian; trustees for eighteen months, John Gilligan and Charles McGinley; editor, Edward J. Kilday.

The following were appointed delegates to the state convention in Putnam in September: Lewis A. Andrews, Edward J. Kilday and John Fitzgerald.

Addresses were then made by retiring President Carey, County Director Fitzgerald, County Director of New London, State Editor James A. McDonald of New London, newly elected president John W. Shea, vice president John J. Smith and others. Sandwiches, cake, coffee and cigars were then enjoyed. Vocal music was rendered by the famous Barnyard quartette, composed of Patrick Donahue, Jeremiah Norrie, John J. Smith and J. J. Smith, accompanied by Lewis A. Andrews on the piano. The society starts on its new term in flourishing condition.

RUSSIAN WOMAN LECTURES.

Madame Davenport Interests Many Here in Ethics, Hygiene and Metaphysics.

At a Broadway home Tuesday afternoon a gathering of Norwich ladies was held enthralled by the peculiarly fascinating lecture on Prevention of Disease by Hygienic Living and Thinking, by Madame Charlotte Gollere Davenport, who, for the past few weeks, has been staying at Dr. J. H. Allen's in Church street, coming to Norwich to seek rest from the teaching of ethics, hygiene and metaphysics in New York city. Madame Davenport returns to her home today, to her address at 438 Main street.

Her profound knowledge of modern science in its multifarious relations to human health and happiness, her personal magnetism and her forceful manner in which she presented her subject won the deepest attention of her hearers.

The fundamental truth in her teaching is that physical, mental and spiritual forces in harmony give strength through inexplicable physiological processes to body and spirit.

In her own case, her physical and mental training has been so successful that, although within four months of her death, she is able to perform her duties as a lecturer and to travel with ease.

Born in St. Petersburg, Russia, the daughter of Count Paskoff, she gained education at Vienna and other European capitals. Wide travel and intercourse with the sages of every people have given her a depth of intellectual training and a broad view of life.

She resided in America for nine years. Mr. Davenport, her second husband, is a correspondent for European papers.

After returning to her home in New York, Madame Davenport will endeavor to form a party of half a hundred people for a world tour, and hopes to get a Norwich member.

Were at Ocean Beach.

A party of Academy girls spent Wednesday at Ocean Beach, where a very pleasant time was spent. The following were in the party with Mrs. John Morrison as chaperone: Marion Sears, Helen Spalding, Daisy Morrison, Marjorie Darbie, Gladys Francis, Annie Stubbs, Fanny Jones, Grace Weston, Ethel Lewis and Eleanor Stevens.

Reunion of Fifth Connecticut.

On August 9 and 10, the forty-seventh anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, the Fifth Connecticut Regiment, which was organized in 1862, will hold its forty-third annual reunion at the Hotel Seaview, Sayon Rock, West Haven. This command, because of its great fighting qualities, was known in the field as the Fifth Connecticut Bulldogs, and it lived right up to its nickname.

"Wasn't I the Chump?"

A man in our store last week was heard to remark: "I threw away a good straw that I had worn only a few weeks because it was soiled and sunburned when I could have made it look as good as new by using a little A. D. S. HAT BLEACH."

Don't be a chump when it costs only 10c for enough Hat Bleach to clean your hat twice a month all through the summer. It is easily applied, any one can use it, and it does not rot the straw.

THE SIK COMPANY'S NEW MILL IN FRANKLIN STREET

The machinery from the Westery Slik company's mill, which had to be vacated last week in Westerly, is all here now, and workmen are engaged in fitting it up in the new factory on Franklin street. The machinery had all to be taken apart, and the work of assembling them is going on as fast as possible, but it is not thought that it can be accomplished so that the factory can be in operation by the first of August, although by the middle of the month it is believed that the wheels will be turning there.

The three-story building is a model one for the business, states Mr. Neuhauer, who is at the head of the company, and he is much pleased at being so well located. The building is an attractive one from the standpoint of a factory and a fine change from the old mill.
